

2019-2020 Arizona FFA Events

Event	Description	Who	When	Where	Cost
 COLT: Chapter Officer Leadership Training	COLT is a 24 hour leadership training where attendee's choose from a variety of workshops to attend. Workshops are designed to provide chapter officer teams with the tools and knowledge needed to effectively run a chapter.	Chapter Officers	August 23-24, 2019 and May 1-2, 2020	ASU Polytechnic Campus Mesa, Arizona	$35 w/o hotel $60 w/ Hotel (2 free per conference w/ 1 star affiliation)
Summit Conference Series	 Embark: A Greenhand Leadership Conference	This power-packed day is designed to kick off a freshman FFA member's career. This conference covers everything from possible agriculture careers, to Supervised Agricultural Experience opportunities and conferences and leadership positions to get involved with. Students who attend this event are more likely to stay involved with FFA all four years of high school.	First year FFA members	September 9,10, 11,12, 20, 23, & October 7	Chandler, Waddell, Safford, Tucson, Yuma Prescott, Winslow $35
	Elevate: A Sophomore Leadership Conference	The sophomore level leadership Conference will focus on a student's individual development with an emphasis on identifying their leadership qualities, personal growth and setting goals. Attendees will develop personal leadership qualities to bring back to their chapters.	Sophomore FFA Members	September 9,10, 11,12, 20, 23, & October 7	Chandler, Waddell, Safford, Tucson, Yuma Prescott, Winslow $20
	Ascend: A Junior Leadership Conference	The junior level leadership conference will focus on a student's interactions with others and will include relationship building, working with teams and serving others. Attendees will develop personal leadership qualities to bring back to their chapters.	Junior FFA Members	September 9,10, 11,12, 20, 23, & October 7	Chandler, Waddell, Safford, Tucson, Yuma Prescott, Winslow $20
	Pinnacle: A Senior Leadership Conference	The senior level will be two day with the first day's focus being how to transition into life after high school and how to apply what one has learned in their FFA experiences to the real world. Day two will focus on FFA award applications including proficiency awards, scholarships and state degrees.	Senior FFA Members	December 6-7, 2019	ASU Polytechnic Campus Mesa, Arizona $60 with hotel
 National FFA Convention	National FFA Convention is a weeklong convention with members from across the Nation. Students are able to attend workshops, compete in CDE's, sight see, attend a career fair, and hear key note speakers. Arizona FFA only handles hotel rooms	National CDE Competitors, National Chorus & Band, and any students interested in FFA nationwide!	October 29- November 2, 2019	Indianapolis, Indiana	$220-$275 + registration + airfare

	All technical based State CDE's held here including: Agricultural Business Management, Ag Mechanics, Ag Sales, Agronomy, Aquaculture, Dairy Evaluation, Entomology, Floriculture, Food Science, Forestry, Horse Evaluation, Nursery/landscape, Job Interview, Livestock Management, Meats Evaluation, Milk Products and Quality, Range Management, Poultry Evaluation, Soils, Wildlife, and Veterinary Science.	FFA Members who have qualified to compete in State CDE's	February 28-29, 2020	University of Arizona, Tucson AZ	Free if one star affiliated ($25/team w/ basic affiliation, $35/team w/o affiliation) + hotel costs
	Students can attend general sessions, motivational speeches, workshops, dodge ball tournament and compete in CDE and LDE's. Events include: Agriculture Issues, Ag Communications, Chapter Display, Scrapbook, Chapter Reporter, Conduct of Chapter Meetings, Creed Speaking, Information, Marketing Plan, Novice Extemp, Novice Prepared, Agricultural Education, Agriscience, Parliamentary Procedure, Extemporaneous Speaking, and Prepared Public Speaking.	All Arizona FFA Members	June 4-6, 2020	University of Arizona Tucson, Arizona	$40 (5 free spots with 1 star affiliation)
	Camp is a 5 day unbelievable leadership experience. Students are sorted into small groups where they bond with members from across the entire state, compete in an obstacle course, accomplish teamwork activities, and develop leadership skills.	All Arizona FFA Members	June 22-26, 2020	Camp Shadow Pines, Heber, AZ	$199 (1 free spot with 1 star affiliation)
Chapter Visits	During chapter visits, State FFA Officers will present to all ag classes about a variety of topics ranging from opportunities in FFA, goal setting, scholarships, and SAE's. Teachers are provided a module selection sheet where they are able to tailor each presentation to the needs of their students.	All Agricultural Education Classes	August-October 2019	Your high school!	Free
	Ignite is a conference designed for new FFA chapters, new advisors, and new chapter officers. This 3-6 hour training covers the basics of FFA and allows chapter officer teams to work with State Officers on developing a plan of action for their chapter.	New FFA programs, advisors, or chapter officers	Year Round	Your high school!	Free
	Stoked is for chapters who are past the basic level, but could use a helpful training. This 3-6 hour conference is tailored to each individual chapter and allows time for chapter officers to work with State Officers.	All FFA Chapters	Year Round	Your high school!	Free
Colt-to-Go	COLT-to-Go is designed by different tracks that each chapter may pick. The conference lasts anywhere from 2-6 hours and focuses more on the operational aspects of running an FFA chapter. Topics include, but are not limited to POA, banquet planning, and fundraising ideas.	FFA Chapter Officer Teams	Year Round	Your high school!	Free

